1892.

A COURTSY.

From many a year of sweet repose,
From work of earlier days,
With youth renewed, I'm roused again
By photographic craze.
With shutter, camera and stop,
And trappings not a few,
I've ventured forth, my skill to test,
On faces bright and new ·:·

—:MOTHER GOOSE:—
·:MDCCXIX:·

When I was a bachelor; I lived by myself::

And all the i::
bread & cheese
I got, I put upon a shelf:

The rats and the mice did lead me such a life ~~~

That I was forced to go to LONDON,

...To get myself a Wife :::

The streets were so broad — and the lanes were so narrow ...

I could not get my Wife home

Without a wheel-barrow.

The wheel-barrow broke, my wife had a fall,

Deuce take wheel-barrow, wife and all.

"Where are you going my pretty maid?
—I'm going a'milking, Sir, she said."

Mary: Mary: quite contrary:
How does your garden grow?

Silver bells and cockle shells

And pretty maids all in a row.

We are all in the dumps
For diamonds are trumps
The kittens are gone to St Pauls

The babies are bit — They're in a fit
And the houses are built without walls
